

"General Dynamics Decision Systems has been in the business of understanding the needs of, and supplying security systems and products to key U.S. Government users for more than 40 years. We provide security products that provide high assurance encryption and user authentication services over commercial GSM systems. Granting this Petition would create a powerful security capability for commercial GSM systems that the Government can use for National Security Related, Law Enforcement, Emergency Preparedness, and Public Safety matters."